"Did you know your health insurance could pay for your Breast Pump?"

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) makes breastfeeding more accessible and affordable for millions of American women. The health care law requires that all new health plans cover breastfeeding support and supplies.

These plans must cover breastfeeding equipment and supplies without cost-sharing "for the duration of breastfeeding," which means plans may not apply any co-payment, co-insurance, or deductible to these benefits. While insurance companies must cover breastfeeding equipment and supplies, they can impose some limitations such as requiring the purchase, rather than rental, of a breast pump.
